- 1
2. It was no "circus for Barnum to start a circus to begin with and the caring of the animals through the winter season didn't help matters any.
3. Feeding is by no means a small expense as only the very best meats are used.
4. A Senegal Lion, the king of them all.
5. His close rival, the Siberian Tiger.
6. Perhaps Barnum got his "hunch" here.
7. There's the Red Fox, the Coyote, the Eskimo Dog and the Australian Dingo.
8. You may talk about the donkey but you should hear the Ze "bray".
9. The Yak, Llama and Kangaroo, all anxiously waiting for circus season.
10. "Bear" facts.
11. The winter season has now passed and the circus is on the road once more - arriving in a small town with the break of day.
12. The pleasant jingle of the horses' chains and the work of unloading begins.
13. Produced only by the circus sextet.
14. A solo.
15. Up she goes.
16. A wanderer.
17. "Huck" and his playmates were on hand.
18. -looking for a water carrier's job
19. The parade starts at 10 o'clock and everything must be shining.
20. - and clean
21. On the entertainment committee.
22. With all the splendor of the pageants of old.
23. Bringing up the rear.
24. "Ladies and gentlemen step right this way for your tickets to the big show."
